Discipline "Accounting and Financial Reporting for IFRS".

The purpose of the course "Accounting and Financial Reporting under IFRS" is to prepare qualified specialists for the needs of market economy entities the field of compilation and presentation of IFRS accounting financial statements.

The main objective of the course "Accounting and financial reporting under IFRS" is to study the methods of rational organization and reporting based on regulatory and legislative acts; acquisition of skills in the processing and use of accounting information in the management of various forms of enterprises.

Discipline "Accounting".

The purpose of teaching the course is to create a system of knowledge on the theory and practice of accounting at enterprises

The main objective of the course "Accounting" is to study the methods of rational organization and accounting at the enterprise based on the use of progressive forms and national standards; to acquire skills in processing and use of accounting information in management.

"Research work of the student".

The aim of the course is to highlight the theoretical foundations of the methodology of technology and the organization of research activities, that is, the formation of a theoretical and practical basis for effective skilled conducting of scientific research by students - masters in the process of learning and in practice.

The purpose of the discipline is to get acquainted with the processes of scientific research, its structure and methods.
Discipline "Accounting and Tax Accounting" for students in the field of 6.030509 "Accounting and Taxation".

The purpose of studying the discipline is mastering general tasks concerning accounting and reporting in taxation, explanation of its essence and content of the main applied categories; assimilation of accounting reporting skills in taxation.

Discipline "Financial Accounting II" for students in the field of 6.030509 "Accounting and Audit".

The purpose of the course is the study, systematization and consolidation of theoretical and practical knowledge of financial accounting, as well as its improvement, the ability to use the acquired knowledge of other subjects of professional orientation.

The main task of the course "Financial Accounting" is the formation of theoretical knowledge system and acquiring practical skills in the formation of financial accounting information on the availability and changes in assets, capital and obligations of the enterprise.

Discipline "Accounting in enterprise management" for students of specialty 071 "Accounting and taxation".

The purpose of the discipline is the formation of a knowledge system of on the preparation of accounting information as the basis for making sound management decisions at all levels of enterprise management.

The task of the discipline is studying the conceptual principles of using accounting as an information source for enterprise management; acquisition of skills in construction and transformation of accounting in the enterprise management system.

Discipline "Accounting in foreign countries" for students in the field of 6.030509 "Accounting and Audit".

The purpose of studying is: acquiring knowledge and practical skills in accounting in foreign countries, taking into account generally accepted principles and international accounting standards.

The objectives of studying are: study of the theory and practice of financial and managerial accounting in foreign countries; acquisition of skills in using the achievements in the field of organization of accounting, analysis and control, taking into account current Ukrainian legislation.

Discipline "State financial control" for students of specialties 07 "Management and administration", 071 "Accounting and taxation".

The purpose of studying the discipline "State financial control" is to study theoretical foundations and gain skills in the theoretical foundations of control and audit activity, learn how to apply new qualified forms and methods of control in order to identify, prevent and eliminate violations and deficiencies in calculations with the tax budget, in use of budget and extrabudgetary funds of local and state budgets, as well as acquisition of skills in the use and application of the regulatory framework regulating control functions of controlling bodies promoting necessary knowledge for future specialists.

Tasks for studying the discipline "State financial control":

...
to master the theoretical and organizational bases of control and revision work;

to study in depth the legal and regulatory framework regulating supervisory functions of controlling bodies;

to acquire the ability to clarify certain legislative provisions on control work, to resolve discussion issues, to make suggestions for its improvement;

to study the components of control work of controlling bodies;

to acquire methodical skills in carrying out control procedures;

to master knowledge in planning and organization of control and revision process;

to acquire knowledge in drawing up generalizations of control results;

to acquire the ability to take control measures.

Discipline "Audit and Computer Audit" for students in the field of 6.030509 "Accounting and Audit".

The purpose of teaching the discipline "Audit and Computer Audit" is to create necessary prerequisites for increasing the professional skills in managing the resources of the enterprise in conditions of sufficient protection from the influence of both internal and external risk factors.

Tasks for studying the discipline:

training theoretical bases of compulsory and initiative audit;

learning certain skills of relationships at the level of audit firms (auditors) and customers of audit services;
learning certain skills to create necessary organizational preconditions, informational provision of the process of listening, free possession of methodological support by conducting audit in computer environment;

learning certain skills in the implementation of audit procedures, identifying possible violations of economic and financial activity and reflecting specific transactions in accounting system.

Discipline "Organization and method of audit" for students of specialties 07 "Management and administration", 071 "Accounting and taxation"

The purpose of teaching the discipline "Organization and methodology of audit" is to create necessary prerequisites for increasing professional skills in managing the resources, processes and actions of the company's officials in the conditions of an unstable economic situation and the impact of both internal and external market risk factors.

Tasks for studying the discipline:

learning the theoretical basis of internal and external audit;

learning certain skills of relationships at the level of audit firms (auditors) and customers of audit services;

learning certain skills to create necessary organizational preconditions, information provision of listening process;

learning certain skills in the implementation of audit procedures, identifying possible violations of economic and financial activity and reflecting specific transactions in the accounting system.
Discipline "Management Accounting" for students of specialty 8.18010016 "Business Administration" (073 "Management").

The purpose of teaching the course is to acquire knowledge on the organization and methodology of managerial accounting, its improvement, taking into account advanced foreign experience.

The objective is to study the principles and methods of managerial accounting, its place and role in the management of the enterprise; the acquisition of the ability to use appropriate methods and techniques in the process of cost accounting and costing in order to make effective management decisions.

Discipline "Accounting and Audit" for students in the field of preparation 6.030501 "Management of Organizations".

The purpose of teaching the course is to create a system of knowledge on the theory and practice of accounting at enterprises.

The task of studying the discipline is to study the methods of rational organization and accounting at the enterprise, based on the use of progressive forms and national standards; to acquire of skills in processing and use of accounting information in management.

Discipline "Accounting" for students in the field of preparation 6.030509 "Accounting and Audit".

The purpose of teaching the course is to create a system of knowledge on the theory and practice of accounting at enterprises.

The main objective of the course is to study the methods of rational organization and accounting at the enterprise based on the use of progressive forms and national standards; to acquire skills in processing and use of accounting information in management.

Discipline "Controlling" for students in the field of 6.030601 "Management of Organizations".

The purpose of studying the discipline is the formation of system knowledge on the conceptual foundations of management of a modern enterprise on the basis of integration, coordination and direction of the activities of various services and units of enterprises to achieve operational and strategic goals.

The task of studying the discipline is the process of operative and strategic management of the enterprise as a system aimed at achieving the strategic and current goals by all strategic units and making managerial decisions to optimize the ratio "cost - volume - profit".

Discipline "Organization and methodology of audit" for students of specialty 07 "Management and administration" 071 "Accounting and taxation".

The purpose of teaching the discipline "Organization and methodology of audit" is to create necessary prerequisites for increasing professional skills in managing the resources, processes and actions of the company's officials in the conditions of an unstable economic situation and the impact of both internal and external market risk factors. Internal and external auditors need a comprehensive vision of the entire system of independent control in the state, and, in particular, require such a block of knowledge and skills as disclosure of the organization and methods of conducting independent financial control.

Tasks for studying the discipline:
learning the theoretical basis of internal and external audit;

learning certain skills of relationships at the level of audit firms (auditors) and customers of audit services;

learning certain skills to create the necessary organizational preconditions, information provision of the listening process;

learning certain skills in conducting audit procedures

Discipline "Accounting in banks" for students in the field of 6.030508 "Finance and credit".

The purpose of studying the discipline is the formation of knowledge on accounting and reporting in banks, acquisition of skills and skills in the preparation and use of accounting information for analytical activity and justification of management decisions in banking business.

The task of studying the discipline "Accounting in banks" is to reveal: the organization of financial accounting in the bank; mastering the methods of accounting for assets, liabilities, equity capital, income and expenses of the bank; determining the influence of banking operations on changes in the financial condition of the bank and the results of its financial activities.

Discipline "State financial control" for students of specialty 07 "Management and administration" 071 "Accounting and taxation".

The purpose of studying the discipline "State financial control" is to study theoretical foundations and gain skills in theoretical foundations of control and audit activity, learn how to apply new forms and methods of control in order to identify, prevent and eliminate violations and deficiencies in calculations with the Tasks for studying the discipline "State financial control":

- to master the theoretical and organizational bases of control and revision work;
- to study in depth the legal and regulatory framework regulating supervisory functions of controlling bodies;
- to acquire the ability to clarify certain legislative on control work, to resolve discussion issues, to make suggestions for its improvement;
- to study the components of control work of controlling bodies;
- to acquire methodical skills in carrying out control procedures;
- to master knowledge in planning and organization of control and revision process; to acquire knowledge in drawing up generalizations of control results; to acquire the ability to take control measures.

Discipline "Tax Management" for students of specialty 07 "Management and Administration", 072 "Finance, Banking and Insurance".

The purpose of the study of the discipline "Tax Management" is to study theoretical foundations and gain skills in the theoretical foundations of tax management, to learn how to apply the new forms and methods of control in order to identify, prevent and eliminate violations and disadvantages in calculations with the tax budget, in the use of budget and extrabudgetary funds of local and state budgets, as well as acquisition of skills in the use and application of the regulatory framework regulating control functions of the controlling bodies promoting necessary knowledge for future specialists.
budgets, as well as acquisition of skills in the use and application of the regulatory framework regulating control functions of controlling bodies, promoting the formation of necessary knowledge of future specialists.

The task for studying the discipline "Tax Management":

• In-depth study of legal and regulatory framework regulating the control functions of tax controlling bodies;

• to gain the ability to explain certain legislation provisions on control work, to resolve discussion issues, to make suggestions for its improvement;

• to acquire methodological skills in carrying out control procedures of the tax authorities;

• to acquire knowledge in planning and organization of control and revision process;

• to acquire knowledge on compilation of generalizations of control results;

• to gain control skills.

Discipline "Accounting in banks" for students in the field of 6.030509 "Accounting and Audit".

The purpose of studying the discipline is the formation of knowledge on accounting and reporting in banks, acquisition of skills and skills in the preparation and use of accounting information for analytical activity and justification of management decisions in banking business.

The task of studying the discipline "Accounting in banks" is to reveal: the organization of financial accounting in the bank; mastering the methods of accounting for assets, liabilities, equity capital, income and expenses of the bank;
determining the influence of banking operations on changes in the financial condition of the bank and the results of its financial activities.